3. Require additional assistance?

3.1. Should you require any assistance in lodging your complaint, please contact us or notify our team at any time. We are committed to undertaking best endeavours in assisting you throughout your complaint process.

4. Our complaints process

4.1. Once we have received your complaint we will:

- Provide you with an acknowledgement (generally within one business day) that we have received your complaint.
- Investigate your complaint and attempt to resolve it when it is first raised or within 5 business days. If your complaint takes longer to investigate, we will keep you informed and updated on the progress.
- Provide you with a formal response (generally no later than 30 calendar days after receiving your complaint). Our response will include:
 - a. the outcome of our investigation;
 - b. our decision in response to your complaint;
 - c. any proposals or action items where applicable;
 - d. contact details for the Australian Financial Complaints Authority (AFCA)

4.2. There may be delays in responding to your complaint within the timeframes mentioned above due to the complexity of the resolution, or, due to circumstances that are outside of our control. If this happens, we will notify you with regards to the delay in advance, the reason for the delay and your options, including your right to escalate your complaint to AFCA.

5. Australian Financial Complaints Authority

5.1. If you don't receive a response to your complaint within the required timeframe, or if you're not satisfied with our formal response to your complaint, you may be eligible to take your complaint to AFCA.

5.2. AFCA provides fair and independent financial services complaint resolution that is free to consumers.

5.3. AFCA's contact details are below:

Website:	www.afca.org.au
Email:	info@afca.org.au
